2026 Board Officers

President's Message

If you expect perfection, you will be disappointed. If you do your best, you will overcome the disappointment and feel proud of your accomplishments.

Welcome to 2026!

I hope you all had a great holiday season. For most of us, it started out with a wonderful Holiday Brunch at Lake Wildwood. The venue was decorated from head to toe. The food was great, and the LWW Women's Choir sang not only holiday songs, but many other beautiful ones I had not heard before. I want to also thank the Christmas Families Project chairs and committee as well as speakers from Helping Hands Nurturing Center who touched us with their heartfelt speeches. And many thanks to our Publicity Chair for her amazing article in The Union on December 13 (see p. 5).

PLEASE NOTE: WE ARE DESPERATELY IN NEED OF A PERSON OR A SMALL COMMITTEE TO SECURE OUR SPEAKERS/ENTERTAINMENT FOR LUNCHEONS AND INFORMED WOMEN!

If this position is not filled, we will not have any entertainment at our luncheons or educational opportunities at Informed Women. I have been given a few suggestions by members to share, but I am not able to do this job along with being president. With 197 members, it seems reasonable to believe that someone will step forward to chair this committee.

Thank you and best wishes for the New Year!

Christmas Families Project

Our Christmas Families Project team would like to thank you all for your support of our program this year! It was a banner year in terms of contributions both for our families this year and moving forward to next year's program as well. Our hearts and minds are full of the generosity of our group members and our community.

We served 87 children and 41 families this year, and we could not have done this without you, our members! We are also grateful for our new team members who joined us this year, and we would like to thank them for their assistance this year. We hope you will continue to participate next year.

Thank you to the rest of the team for your unwavering support of this program.

With much love and appreciation,

The CFP Chairs

TIED UP WITH A BOW

Newcomers Club luncheon raises $11,150

The Union, December 13, 2025.

Please submit informative community announcements/tips to the President for board consideration.

The young mother began quietly sharing her efforts to regain both increased visitation with her young child and, simultaneously, any belief in her own self-worth. She paused, breathing deeply as she described recent traumatic experiences that led her to Helping Hands Nurturing Center — and the miracles she found there.

She spoke of encouraging parenting classes that taught her the skills she both wanted and needed to rebuild her connection with her little one, along with unwavering support and reassurance from staff. They lifted her up, trusted her story and her capabilities, and guided her through complicated legal processes.

This young woman was one of the highlights of the Newcomers Club of Nevada County Christmas Luncheon, held December 2 at the beautiful Lake Wildwood Country Club. More than 110 women attended — all of whom helped raise more than $11,150 this year to purchase, wrap, and deliver holiday presents for local families in need... gifts chosen directly from the children's own wish lists. While purchasing and wrapping continue with the help of dedicated Newcomers "elves," all gifts will reach families the week before Christmas.

The other speaker was the powerhouse Executive Director of Helping Hands Nurturing Center, Shona Duncan, who brought her impressive background of seven years in Child Protective Services, 14 years in family and dependency law, as well as a couple years work with special needs children. Shona has a personal understanding of trauma's impact on families that she created Helping Hands in April 2014. Newcomers audience was impressed to learn about her more than 25 years of work and support for at-risk children and families and her commitment through her programs she developed to break the generational cycles of trauma and abuse.

Helping Hands, which she started with her own funds, provides services for every stage of a child's development, from birth through the teenage years. Programs include Nurturing Families Parenting Programs, Supervised Parent Coaching Visitation, Co-Parenting Services, a Fathers Program, Parent & Child Play Groups, and Mediation. They also offer a 52-Week Child Abuse Prevention Program to help caregivers build healthy skills and reduce trauma.

So how did this beautiful connection form between Newcomers and Helping Hands?

Past Newcomers board member Rosalie Baker shared:

"I have known Shona since she was with CPS, which received support from Newcomers' first Christmas Fund Projects. At that time, we provided some gifts to families at risk who were housed in a local hotel and Shona was there, hands on and all heart."

"The Newcomers Christmas Fund Project grew stronger as we focused more on each child's specific needs. When Shona started Helping Hands, I began collaborating with her to identify families. After seeing the incredible outcomes her programs quickly achieved, I suggested that all our Christmas funds go directly to Helping Hands.

"I've watched this project grow from $200 annually to now — $11,150 in 2025. I may have been her champion on the board, but only because we believe in her."

Each year, Shona brings a family to share their story at the Newcomers Christmas luncheon — as she did this year. Rosalie adds, "I would love to duplicate her program where I now live in Livermore. Shona puts intellect and creative life-altering strategies into this work."

Newcomers President Debe Wilson is thrilled with the generosity of her members and celebrates their highest fundraising success this year. She notes that many shoppers personally spend even more than the budgeted amount on their children. Wilson shares, "this what community looks like — connected, caring, and committed. And because of Newcomers Club members of Nevada County and Helping Hands Nurturing Center, local families in need will feel that love wrapped around them this holiday season... tied up with a bow."

ACTIVITY GROUPS — FEATURE STORIES

Garden Club

The Garden Club celebrated a fun and successful year with our Christmas luncheon at Awful Annie's. Our hostess created a lovely Christmas swag with pine branches, red berries and a handmade bow. She offered to include the swag in the final drawing of the raffle. The raffle was lively and fun. One member made and donated two beautiful quilts for our silent auction. We look forward to the New Year ringing in fun and informative Garden Club events.

If you are interested in joining the Newcomers Club Garden Group, please contact the leader.

Girls Just Wanna Have Fun (GJWHF)

Girls Just Wanna Have Fun group is now open to all members.

Our 2026 calendar is shaping up to be another exciting year! Axe throwing, Ananda tour, art class at Curious Forge, Sacramento underground tour and several mingles around town, (no reservations required), among other events, are on the calendar. If you would like to join us and be put on the roster, you can contact the group leader.

Adventure Gals

In November the Adventure Gals made their way up to Napa for a hot air balloon ride. Unfortunately, they were never cleared for flight due to low fog in the area, but all had a great time, nonetheless.

In December, these fun ladies gathered at the leader's home to celebrate their inaugural Holiday Potluck and White Elephant gift exchange.

UPCOMING EVENTS:

After the first of the year—and some snow, these ladies are headed to the mountains to cross-country ski, snowshoe, and dogsled. However, while they wait for snow, the group will be gathering for a lively night of improv—yes, you heard that right! The pure definition of adventure is “an experience that involves exploration, excitement, or uncertainty, often taking someone outside their usual routine or comfort zone. It typically includes an element of risk, challenge, or discovery, whether physical, emotional, or intellectual.” This adventure will allow these ladies to explore their inner acting talents while sharing plenty of laughs along the way.

We are currently accepting new adventurers. If you would like to join Adventure Gals, please contact the group leader.
